Dearest Mother and Daddy:

Suppose your baby is home by now, (3:12 P.M.) I failed to ask her when she expected to arrive but we figured it would be to-day.

Such a precious but brief visit. We can't thank the Lord enough for it all. Surely His return is very near - seems He has made loved ones so exceedingly precious & the longing grows for us all to reach Home! We could hardly give her up. Would love to have kept her. I knew knowing a bit of her testing & loneliness coming into her young life made it, for all, a sacred time to-gether. Let us hear right away when & how she reached home.

Was so glad to get your letter. May God richly bless you. So grateful for both of you are good

Only $2 - send me quilt. Sorry we forgot the quilt. Bessie & Helen
